CRIMINAL LIBEL ALLEGED BY JENNINGS

In Suit Against Alfred St.
Clair-Abrams And Cartoonist Taylor.

The Jacksonville Industrial Record says:

Before Justice I. L. Farris yesterday morning former Gov. W. S. Jennings filed a suit for criminal libel against Alfred St. Clair Abrams of Tavares, and A. K. Taylor, of Jacksonville.

The charge of criminal libel is based upon an article which appeared in the Tavares Herald September 24, together with a cartoon, which former Gov. Jennings alleges is false, malicious and scandalous criminal libel.

The cartoon, which covered the upper half of the front page on the Tavares Herald, pictures ex-Gov. Jennings in tattered clothing speaking before the legislature of 1899, with the speaker in his box saying: "As you are a good old straight-out, I've worked it to let you off for $1,000."

The audience is pictured saying:
"You are poor—the poorest specimen of man I have ever seen."

The cartoon pictures Gov. Jennings with his face toward the audience, labelled: "Sherman Jennings," saying: "Gentlemen, I have walked from Brooksville to exhibit my personal appearance to you, which speaks pittingly of my poverty. I am hungry, footsores, shoeless and ragged and I ask relief from defaulting Collins' bond which I am on for $6,000—pity me gentlemen, I am very poor."

Grounds For Suit.

The right hand of the cartoon pictures Gov. Jennings sitting in an armchair labeled "ex-Gov. Sherman Jennings"—with papers projecting from his coat pocket labeled: "45,000 bank stock"—and he is reading the following: "$30,000 stock Consolidated Naval Stores in another name." A picture labeled "Cousin Bill" is hanging on the wall, saying: "May be minister to the court of St. James," and ex-Gov. Jennings saying: "I may not be able to fool all the people all the time, but I've been able to fool a good many of 'em a good many times." The cartoon pictures Mr. Jennings leaning back in the chair, resting his head on a bag labelled "Convict lease profits $," and at the bottom of the cartoon are the words, "Before and after taking."

Although the cartoon bears no name, it is alleged that Mr. Taylor drew it.

The story upon which the criminal libel proceedings is based appears in the Tavares Herald on the editorial page and is headed "A Scandalous Administration."

Article Objected To.

In the affidavit filed and sworn to before Justice Farris ex-Gov. Jennings points out the following which appeared in the Tavares Herald:

"Florida has had good governors, indifferent governors and poor governors, but until William Sherman Jennings became governor of the state of Florida there was never a scandalous administration reflecting the integrity of any chief magistrate of this state. We have had governors who have been criticised, assailed and their actions denounced, but we cannot recall a single instance in which any reports were circulated charging any of them with profiting by his office. It is useless to deny the character of the reports that have been and are still in circulation. It would be useless to suppose that they have not reached the ears of William Sherman Jennings."

"There have been scandalous reports of money paid monthly on account of the convict lease, and of money paid to secure the signing of the famous divorce bill. With the truth of falsity of these reports the people of Florida are very much concerned. Mr. Jennings is still taking active part in the affairs of this state. He is believed to be the power behind Gov. Broward in the drainage scheme and to have been the author of the constitutional amendment now sought to be foisted upon the people of this state. He is the attorney for the Broward board, receiving, it is said, $5,000 per annum from the funds of the state."

"Either this man has been for years more outrageously slandered or libeled or he is utterly unfit to hold any position of trust and confidence in the state of Florida. He entered upon his duties as governor a comparatively poor man; when he left it, he is credited with being in affluence. Report gives him the ownership of $30,000 of stock in the Consolidated Naval Stores Company, $15,000 of stock in the bank of which he was one of the vice-presidents for one year, and with being possessed of other thousands; all this within four short years."

Further Allegations.

The information further alleges that ex-Gov. Jennings has been accused of the following:

"That when he was elected governor he was so poor that he could only pay one-sixth of what he owed as security on the State treasury for the Collins bond and only paid one-third of what he owned in the Brooksville bank trouble, but after serving as governor for four years at a salary of $3,500, he quit with a handsome fortune, variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000—How did you get it, governor?—where did you get it?"

Gov. Jennings sets forth that they then and there, knowing the said scandalous and malicious libel to be false, Alfred St. Clair Abrams and A.
K. Taylor did unlawfully and maliciously draw, portray, write and publish and cause to be written, drawn, portrayed and published of and concerning W. S. Jennings, a false, scandalous and malicious criminal libel in the form of a picture, drawing or car-
